

Giving Societies & Challenge Grants

United Way of Central Maryland counts on leaders like you to ensure our work continues. Joining our giving societies provides an opportunity to recognize those who are willing to lead by example and a way for you to make a bigger difference by giving back to our community.

GIVING SOCIETIES

If you haven't already, please consider one of these options:

- Emerging Leaders United (ELU) members are young professionals, ages 40 and under, who give $260 or more annually.
- Leaders United members donate $1,000-$9,999 annually, and include our most engaged philanthropic business and community leaders.
- Women United is a dynamic network of women who are focused on changing the odds for families through networking, advocacy, volunteering and donating $1,000 or more annually. Women United - Tocqueville Society members give $10,000 or more annually.
- Tocqueville Society members contribute $10,000 or more annually to create a brighter future for all of us. These exceptional leaders set the standard and motivate others to give generously as well.
- Legacy Circle members establish a gift to the endowment that will impact central Maryland now and in the future. Planned gifts take many forms, including current and deferred gifts that require little or no current cash outlay.

CHALLENGE GRANTS

Our generous partnerships with local foundations allow United Way to instantly leverage your donation, and we're proud to offer these grants:

Weinberg Leadership United Challenge Grant

Thanks to the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, this grant helps those donating a minimum of $500 reach the $1,000 Leaders United level in three years by becoming a member today.

Tocqueville Society Challenge Grant

Thanks to Baltimore Equitable Insurance Foundation, France-Merrick Foundation, Robert E. Meyerhoff and the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, this grant helps those donating a minimum of $5,000 reach the $10,000 Tocqueville Society level in three years by becoming a member today.
